

Summary Media Coverage Report

Source	Date	Page	Headline
Irish Independent Property	20071024	2	Regional action

Publication: Irish Independent Property

Date: Wednesday, October 24, 2007

Page: 2

Extract: 1 of 1

Circulation: 163.732

Author:

Headline: Regional action

Regional action

COMMERCIAL property has become the star of the auction market. In Galway a corner shop, known as the Polo Gallery, sold recently for €2.04m - €1m more than the vendors expected. The agents were O'Donnellan & Joyce.

In Co Wexford the former ESB depot at Bosheen, New Ross sold for €1.14m. Comprising 1.1 acres and including over 278 sq m. of retail and office accommodation, it had good development potential. Agents

P N O'Gorman reports that it was bought jointly by two local businessmen.

OFF-FARM investment specialists Farrelly & Mitchell have launched their annual series of investment seminars. The seminars begin in Gorey this weekend, October 26, and will also be held in Dungarvan, Cork, Limerick, Athenry, Mullingar, Cavan and Letterkenny. All sessions will start at 8pm. See www.farrellymitchell.ie